Remarques (au verso) Report on Besehali (in German)
Founded in 1838, this text of 1864 report has details of users (number and children) and number of books. A definite religious bent meant for workers. Linked to Franklin Society in Paris. It had a specific evangelical purpose, it was aimed at young workers.

It was a very modest operation.

Receipt for winter '62-'63
840 f. 80

Expenses . . . 864 55,
ie, 23 f. 75 in debt.