The Map and Data Library (MDL) provides access to data and statistics. Many of the most important data and statistics sources are included on the MDL homepage.

Access Canadian demographic data through the Census of Canada link on the Map and Data Library homepage.
This page provides data on Canadian censuses from 1961 onwards. Select a year, or type education in the search box to find education-related census data.