To determine if an article is peer reviewed use Ulrichsweb. Go to library.utoronto.ca and click the “Catalogue” tab:

Type in Ulrichsweb and click the search button:

UlrichsWeb should be the first item in the results. Click the blue “Abstracts and Indexes” link:

Type in the journal title not the article title. In this example we are searching for the journal English Historical Review:

The “Referee Jersey” icon means that the journal is peer reviewed, therefore the articles from that journal are peer reviewed:
