What is a DOI

The DOI (Digital Object Identifier) is a unique number assigned by the publisher that identifies the journal and individual article.

CrossRef recently added the URL (http://dx.doi.org/) to precede the DOI itself (10.1037/rmhoooooo8). This change is recent, so both old and new formats are acceptable, but be sure not to mash them together!

Correct:
- doi:10.1037/rmhoooooo8
- http://dx.doi.org/10.1037/rmhoooooo8
- https://doi.org/10.1037/rmhoooooo8

Incorrect:
- doi:http://dx.doi.org/10.1037/rmhoooooo8
- Retrieved from http://dx.doi.org/10.1037/rmhoooooo8

TIPS:
Copy and pasting the DOI is recommended.

Do not put a period after the DOI as it may interfere with locating the article online.

How to Cite a Journal Article with a Digital Object Identifier (DOI)

Author, A. A. & Author, A.A. (Year of Publication). Title of article. Journal Title, volume(issue number), print page numbers. doi:xxxxxxxxxxxxxx
